At James Gibb, we appreciate that block insurance (etc) cover can be quite complex and the circumstances that lead to an insurance claim can be stressful so we've put together this handy guide to ensure that you know what's covered and that the claims process is quick and straightforward.

Is my property covered by the James Gibb insurance policy?

Most of the developments we manage are safe in the knowledge that their buildings/lifts etc are insured by Zurich Insurance. If you're not sure if your development is covered, information can be found on your James Gibb+ Portal via our website or on the JG+ App. Alternatively please contact your regional office.

If you do not have access to the internet, please contact your regional office and we can advise.

James
Gibb

What's covered under the policy?

Cover varies depending on the schedule of insurance placed for each development. Flatted developments, insured through us, will have at least some of the following:

- Buildings insurance
- Communal contents insurance (not private contents)
- Lift insurance / inspection
- Terrorism cover
- Property Owners Liability cover

Houses will not normally have buildings cover but may have the following:

- Property Owners' Liability cover
- Playparks insurance

The full detailed policy documents relating to each of the above are available on our website www.jamesgibb.co.uk. Email or hard copies are available on request.

A copy of your schedule / certificate of insurance is available via your JG+ Portal or App or you can contact your regional office for a copy. The certificate details the level of cover in place, sums insured, excess levels, premium etc.

Unoccupied properties

You must notify James Gibb if your property becomes unoccupied for a period of more than 3 months and in addition insurers expect the following risk mitigation steps to be followed under the Reasonable Precautions policy condition:

- Turn off electricity gas and water supplies at the mains (providing that this does not affect other premises in which case supplies to part of the property owned by the insured should be turned off) and drain all water systems except for those connected to automatic fire alarm or intruder alarm installations or connected to automatic sprinkler installations or other fire suppression systems. As an alternative, water supplies and heating systems may be left in operation at a level which will provide protection throughout the property against frost damage.
- Maintain automatic sprinkler installations and other fire suppressions systems, automatic fire alarm and intruder alarm and intruder alarm installations and keep them fully operational.
- Maintain a level of heating sufficient to prevent freezing of automatic sprinkler installations during the period 1st October - 1st April each year.
- Secure the buildings and all points of access against entry by intruders and put all protective and locking devices and any intruder alarm installations into full and effective operation.
- Removal of waste unfixed combustible materials and gas bottles from the interior of the buildings including any communal parts and from any external areas owned.
- Carry out an internal and external inspection of the buildings at least every 14 days which should commence within 14 days following the property becoming unoccupied and
 - Maintain a record of such inspections.
 - Ensure that any defects in the condition or state of repair of the buildings or defects in security, alarm or fire protection installations are rectified, remedied or repaired immediately.
- Notify the insurer immediately if the buildings are to be occupied by contractors for renovation, alteration or conversion purposes.

COMMUNAL CLAIMS

Communal claims are those where the damage is in a communal area. Examples might be: water damage to common parts, malicious damage to common close, gutter damage due to storm, basement flooding, damaged drains, damaged lifts etc.

In such circumstances, you should call your regional office right away, if within working hours. Your regional office will instigate the claim with QuestGates as well as arrange repairs (temporary or final depending on circumstances).

If an event from a communal area is discovered outwith working hours and emergency contractor attendance is required, please call your regional office where you will be connected to our out of hours emergency call centre. They will instigate the repair and provide your regional office with relevant details to allow the intimation of a common insurance claim as required.

Claims Management

Depending on the cause and type of claim, in some cases the loss adjuster will arrange a site visit to be undertaken at the property to review the claim and damage sustained. In some circumstances they can repudiate the claim, which will be reported via the loss adjuster .

It should be noted that where a homeowner is proven to be negligent for the cause of the damage to a property and a claim is raised, the party that suffered the damage may seek recovery for any outlays such as the policy excess either directly or via other means. An example of negligence would be a bath left running or poor maintenance on bath seals.

Alternative Accommodation/Loss of Rent Claims

If you need to make a claim under the Alternative Accommodation or Loss of Rent sections of the policy, you will be required to log this element of the claim with QuestGates directly. The contact details for QuestGates is available from your regional office.

Excesses

All claims attract an excess, although the level will differ depending on the nature of the claim. Excesses are applied on a "per demise" basis, meaning each property that has suffered damage AND that intimates a claim will be subject to the relevant policy excess. Where an excess requires to be paid for claims within private properties, this will be the sole responsibility of the owner(s) making the claim, with payment due to the appointed contractor directly.

For common area claims the excess will be shared between owners accordingly and will appear on your invoice as "insurance excess".

If you accept a cash settlement please note, QuestGates will confirm the full and final settlement amount.

We at James Gibb hope that this guide has helped answer any queries you may have had. However if you require further information please contact your regional office.
